

TEAM REQUIREMENTS

Western BCA

9-Ball 3-Person Teams

Each three-person team can have only one Master or Grandmaster player. All players must qualify and be sanctioned through the same Western BCA league. (There is no Master division team event.)

8-Ball Teams

Master division: Teams can consist of any qualified and sanctioned Western BCA players from throughout the association. Only one regional Grand Master can play on a Master team. Men's/Mixed Master teams are 5 person, Women's Master teams are 4 person.

Mens/Mixed Open Teams: Each 5 player team must consist of at least two players from their original qualifying league team. All players must qualify and be sanctioned through the same Western BCA league. No Grand Master or Master players are allowed in the Open division. Teams that place first through fourth in the Mens/Mixed Open division must play in the Masters division for the next two regional events if they wish to play with three or more members of that winning team.

Womens Open Teams: Teams consist of 4 members and must consist of at least two players from their original qualifying league team. All players must qualify and be sanctioned through the same Western BCA league. No Grand Master or Master players are allowed in the Open division. Teams that place first and second in the Women's Open Team division must play in the Masters division for the next two regional events if they wish to play with three or more members of that winning team.

9-Ball and 8-Ball Mixed Scotch Doubles

Master Division: Teams may consist of any qualified and sanctioned Western BCA players. There can only be one Grand Master on any Master Scotch Doubles team.

Open Division: Both players must qualify and be sanctioned through the same Western BCA league.
