Dear BCAPL supporter,

NOTICE: The ACS has scheduled their national tournament to overlap the BCAPL championships by four days in May 2011. Please be aware of this date conflict when you make plans for sanctioning or dual sanctioning this fall, and also when you make plans to attend national tournaments next spring.

Tournaments

2011 ACS National Championships

2011 BCA Pool League 9-Ball Challenge

PartyPoker.net World Pool Masters***

35th BCAPL National 8-Ball Championships

Start of Play

May 7 (Sat)

May 11 (Wed)

May 11 (Wed)

May 13 (Fri)

End of Play

May 14 (Sat)

May 12 (Thu)

May 15 (Sun)

May 21 (Sat)

Here is how the date conflict may affect YOU:

➤ All Referees and Exhibitors – must choose between the BCAPL and ACS events, unless you pull out of the ACS event 4 days early. You simply can't be in two places at the same time.

THE 35th BCAPL CHAMPIONSHIPS SCHEDULE HAS NOT CHANGED FOR MANY YEARS. IT IS POSTED ON THE EVENT PAGE ON PLAYBCA.COM – CLICK HERE

➤ Some Players – If you play in the last four days of the ACS nationals (probably the team events), you will not be able to participate in the ANY BCAPL Singles Divisions, ANY BCAPL Scotch Doubles Divisions, and the BCA Pool League 9-Ball Challenge, which attracted more players (248) than any ACS division in 2010. We are concerned that the ACS dates will cause some players to attempt to enter divisions in both tournaments (BCAPL & ACS) ... and have to forfeit later due to the conflict. That would be most unfortunate.

This ACS date conflict unfairly discriminates against any league that is impartial, or is loyal to the BCA Pool League – The ACS loyalists who care only about the ACS tournament are completely unaffected by the date conflict in 2011. Only individual Players, League Operators, Referees and Exhibitors who want to attend our event are affected by the conflict, and that is not acceptable.

We hope you will continue to choose "The Greatest Pool Tournament in the World!" The CSI mission statement is "More choices for all players," and we intend to deliver on that promise to the best of our ability.

This decision by ACS is unprecedented. National pool leagues have ALWAYS respected each other's dates. It is extremely difficult to understand why ACS would put this burden on ANY participants.
