>>> WBCA 9 Ball Info <<<

If you are going to Lincoln City this fall, I recommend reading this message from Bill. Especially the part about the new team format. It is composed of just Men's Open B and Womens Open players. Its worth reading. See below.

We will be at Shotze's in Everett to collect entry forms on the evening of the deadline (Tuesday Sept 6th). They can also be mailed anytime prior to this date to the PCL address. After that there is one week of late fees. We will be at the Golden Fleece on this day to collect any of those (Tuesday Sept 13th). The mailing address and other contact info can be found here.

Hello Everyone

The 9-Ball Championships are fast approaching. The entry forms are now on the website. There are some changes to the format for these Championships. We have a brand new event that we think will be very popular with Open B men and some Open women, that is the Men's/Mixed Open B Team event. This will give those players a chance to compete against their peers and it will also make the Men's/Mixed Team event more competitive. We are not offering Novice divisions for 9-Ball. This decision was made because the Novice division has been getting fewer and fewer entries. As of this time we are planning on having Novice divisions for 8-Ball. And finally we will be having a Grand Master Challenge at 9-Ball for the first time. It will be a great event to watch and the Master players will have more of a chance to do well in the tournament with those great players not playing in the Masters division. Also we are having FUN NIGHT on Monday night with relaxed dress code, mini-tournaments, ring games and maybe some other fun things. Doors will open at 3 PM on Monday and the tables are always open for free play.
